

IB BIOLOGY

Why this Course?

The IB diploma course is designed to develop an inquiring learner who wants to deepen their knowledge of biological principles.

It provides an opportunity to study how scientists work through a practical project and an individual investigation.

Topics covered include:

Cell Biology, Genetics, Plant Biology, Human and Animal Physiology and an optional unit on topics such as Neurobiology.

Student Profile

Has a passion for Biology and wants to take their GCSE Science further. They will enjoy practical work and applying their knowledge to new situations.

They will want to make connections with the world around them and will be keen to open the door to a range of careers.

Assessment

3 written papers for 80% of the marks and an individual investigation. You will also carry out a number of practical activities over the 2 years as well as completing a group project.

Progression

Degrees in Biology, Medicine, Veterinary Science, Physiology, Nursing, Sport Science and many more.

Careers include Nursing, Vet Nurse, Vet, Doctor, Teacher, Dentist, Marine Biology, Physiotherapist and many more.

COURSE DETAILS

Course Title

IB Diploma in Biology

Exam Board

IB

Course Length & Qualification

2 Years

Generic entry requirements for IB Diploma subjects

4 GCSEs at Grade 4-9

Subject specific entry requirements

GCSE Trilogy Science at Grade 6-6 or GCSE Biology at Grade 6

Compatible subjects

Chemistry, Physics, Maths, Geography, Psychology, Health & Social Care